New York, NY, Friday, April 16, 2010 ... In a pre-game ceremony on Saturday, April 17, Philadelphia Phillies pitcher J.A. Happ will receive a prestigious Players Choice Award as 2009 NL Outstanding Rookie. Jimmy Rollins, J.A.'s teammate and a member of the MLBPA's Executive Board, will represent his National League peers in presenting the award to J.A.

Selected in a secret ballot of all Major League players, J.A. earned a Players Choice Award after making an impressive jump from the Phillies' bullpen to starter in late May, and posting a record of 12-4 with an ERA of 2.93. Drafted by the Phillies in the third round of the 2004 June draft (92nd overall), last season J.A. struck out 119 batters in 166 innings pitched and posted two shutouts. In 2008, the 6'6" native of Peru, IL, finished second in the International League in strikeouts, with 151, and averaged 10.1 strikeouts per 9 innings pitched.

In J.A.'s honor, the Major League Baseball Players Trust has awarded a $20,000 grant to the Diabetes Research Institute Foundation. 2009 Players Choice Award winners in all categories will designate charities to receive grants totaling $260,000 from the Players Trust. Since 1992, the Players Trust has recognized the outstanding on-field and off-field performances of Players Choice Awards winners by contributing nearly $3 million to charities around the world.

Through the Players Trust, Major Leaguers contribute their time, money and celebrity to call attention to important causes affecting the needy and to help encourage others to get involved in their own communities. In partnership with Volunteers of America, the national human service organization, the Players Trust administers the Action Team, a national youth volunteer program currently inspiring the next generation of volunteers in more than 150 high schools in cities throughout the United States.
